

Don't let big business ruin my dinner with my family. They did it long enough.
If the do not call list gets changed, I will just have to find other means to talk to people. I will not have a landline so people can bug me to death.